We are looking for some able-bodied energetic volunteers to come out one Saturday per month to work on various projects to help improve and maintain Camp Bashore. Work Days will be held rain or shine, and there will be projects available for all levels of skill and ages. This is open to any registered member of the BSA or Friends of Camp Bashore.

Some of the projects we are looking to accomplish are:

- ◆ Tent Platforms– Building 20 new / Repairing existing
- ◆ Clearing brush, branches, and other debris from campsites and trails.
- ◆ Cleaning and prepping Campsites and Program areas for Summer Camp!
- ◆ Opening & Preparing the Pool for the Summer.
- ◆ Cleaning Buildings, Washing Windows
- ◆ Painting Buildings– interior & exterior
- ◆ Cut & Split Firewood

We will provide all materials and tools. Please feel free to bring additional bowsaws, axes, rakes, pruners, and any other hand tools. Please contact Ranger Dave about power tools (chainsaws, weedwackers, hedge trimmers, etc..) Scouts MUST HAVE Adult Supervision. Workers should be prepared with work gloves, insect repellent and sunscreen. This is also a great opportunity to help Scouts earn service hours.

Please contact Ranger Dave by email: david.matterness@scouting.org or call (717) 304-5796 to to be added to the contact list, and we will keep you informed of specific project needs, and additional dates!
