

The Snowflake

When a snowflake falls to Earth,
it's a picture of divine birth.
Special gift from up above,
reflection of the Creator's love;
Began so intricate small,
God with us, born like us all.
Special, unique, none the same
knows your heart and knows your name.
Transforms everything in sight,
cleansing filth to spotless white.
Reminds us how he covers sin
and offers Grace when we turn to Him.
So next snowfall may you find snowflakes bringing God to mind.
Giving you joy, refreshed anew
and remember all His love for you.
